FOSTER PROUD OF HIS STUDENTS

CRITTENDEN BOYS AT ELKTON
GOOD AT FOOTBALL.

Also Commended by the Head of the School as Being Regular
"Good Fellows."

Mr. Richard A. Foster, Headmaster of the John Locke School, at Elkton, Ky., himself a former Crittenden county boy has written the Press as follows:

"I just want to say a word in regard to the quality of boys you sent up to us from Crittenden this year.

In all you sent us six boys: M. Y. Nunn, Charles Hughes, Lacy Cook, Frank Phillips, Oral Flanary and Roy Flanary. They are every one of them genuine fellows. They know what it is to have the school spirit and stick by the school. They are loyal to their duties and execute them promptly.

Five of these boys have played on our football team and four of them have played in practically all the games and on the afternoon of November 8th those four boys played a great part in making us victorious by a score of 18 to 0 over the Clarksville High School team, a high school with more than 400 students. This is the second time we have defeated them. The week before we defeated Franklin High School by the score of 26 to 6.

Charles Hughes of near Weston a first year man here was captain of the team that has made us victors. Besides that he got away with the ball in the Clarksville game in the last two minutes of the game and made another touchdown. Furthermore Charlie has been on our honor roll every week and every month since he came here to school which signifies that he has made above 90 average.

Oral plays right end and he has always been on the spot when it comes to catching a forward pass. Roy plays right tackle. It is interesting to see Roy and Oral do team work or to watch Oral pat his younger brother on the back when he has made a proper play. Roy sure has nerve and he showed it by the way he bucked up against that big Clarksville man.

Frank is left tackle and he is one of those fellows who will never quit. He will stay right with the bunch, win or lose. And he never becomes impatient or discouraged. Everybody likes him.

"M. Y." got hurt in a hard fought game early in the season and could not play for several games, but he's always there with the "pep" and spirit to see his team win out. Had he not gotten hurt five of the eleven on the team would have been Crittenden county boys. He never stands back at anything, but is always ready to help whether it be his teachers or his team. We are counting big on him.

Lacy is the funny one—a general favorite among the boys. He has become a great tennis fan too. Most any time when it is not raining and he has some time off you can find him at tennis. I was about to forget to tell you that Lacy got a prize this year for having the neatest kept room. When his mother finds that out I know she'll want to make a house girl out of him when he gets home. He's pretty good at his books too. He generally reads a little Caesar for me when I call on him I notice.

"M. Y." and Lacy eat at our table and we have lots of fun when the jokes get going, and we never have to mention table manners to them. In short we are proud of them all."

RICHARD A. FOSTER.

Good Meeting at Wheatcroft.

Revs. W. T. Oakley and Virgil Stone closed last week a great meeting at Wheatcroft. There were 50 professions of faith and a general religious uplift.

DIPHTHERIA WARNING

Diphtheria is reported as existing in more than half the counties of Kentucky. It is an epidemic in several of them. This is not a cause for senseless alarm but for intelligent action. More than half the 249 deaths which occurred from the disease last year were in children whose parents failed to call a physician during the first three days of the sore throat. The greatest American authority speaking of diphtheria anti-toxin says:

"When this remedy is properly used on the first day of the appearance of the membrane in the throat, there are no deaths from diphtheria. When delay in its use extends to the second day the death rate runs from five to ten per cent, when it extends to the third or fourth day, it runs up to thirty, forty and even fifty per cent."

The following definite suggestions are offered by the State Board of Health to teachers, parents or guardians for the suppression of diphtheria:

When a child has a sore throat it should be excluded from school, kept at home in bed, separated from other children, and the family physician called. This is essential if there are whitish spots in the throat. Specimens should be taken by the physician and examined in approved laboratories or sent to the State Health Laboratories at Lexington or Louisville for free examination. If the case is at all suspicious antitoxin should be administered at once, and from 7000 to 10000 units if seen 5,000 units if seen on the first day, later. This dose should be repeated in six hours if the membrane is not getting smaller. Antitoxin is furnished by the State Board of Health at greatly reduced prices to physicians and Boards of Health.

FORMER MARION GIRL, TO WED.

We clip the following from the Joplin, Mo., Globe:

Mrs. G. E. Grissom, Thirty-second and Moffet avenue, entertained with a party Tuesday afternoon and announced the approaching wedding of their daughter, Miss Mary Elizabeth Grissom to Mr. Otis Reynolds. The wedding will be married December 17. The announcement was made upon the birthday of the bride-to-be. Plans for the afternoon entertaining and the decorations of the home were made and carried out by members of the Crochet Club, of which Mrs. Grissom is a member. The house was attractively arranged with autumn leaves and chrysanthemums in yellow and white. In one corner of the dining room the honorees shower box was displayed under a pretty canopy of autumn leaves. Festoonings of yellow and white in crepe paper were used about the rooms extending from the chandeliers to the corners of the rooms. During the afternoon little Miss Glyda McCarn passed announcement cards in the colors. They were unique in the form of two hearts, each heart being mounted with a picture of the bride and groom-to-be. Upon the arrow, which pierced the hearts, was the date, December 17. Little Misses Barbara Cope and Evelyn Grissom served the luncheon at the close of the afternoon. It was in three courses and the yellow and white color idea was carried throughout the menu. At the close of the afternoon little Miss Glyda McCarn pushed a large doll cart into the room filled with a shower of miscellaneous gifts from Miss Grissom's friends. The cart was decorated in yellow and white and the presents were presented in a pleasing manner.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Grissom is remembered by many of our citizens, however only as a little girl, as she left here with her parents about twelve years ago. G. E. Grissom is a son of John B. Grissom of Marion, and learned the printers trade here in The Press office, where he worked for many years and was foreman at the time he resigned to cast his lot with the people of Missouri.

The two banks of Providence have consolidated and the new corporation of January.

NINE YEAR OLD HERO.

James D. Carnahan, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Carnahan, got his right hand badly burned last week as a result of saving his little sister Louise from being severely burned.

The children were burning leaves in the lot back of the house when Louise's clothing was caught by the flames. She became frightened and started to run to the house, but James D., seeing what had happened and knowing that she could not reach the house before being badly burned, caught her, threw her down and rolled her over and over on the ground thus extinguishing the flames. He had been taught at school that this was the thing to do, and did not hesitate to do it.

Louise was not injured at all but James D.'s hand was so badly burned it had to be cared for for several days.

Lieutenant Beque Resigns.

Lieut. John Harvey Beque, who has resigned his post as commanding officer of the U. S. Chemical Plant at Saltville, Va., and has been honorably discharged from the army, has accepted a Fellowship with the Mellon Institute, University of Pennsylvania. Mrs. Beque, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Blue, will join the lieutenant shortly.

Sold Out.

James H. Moore has sold his interest in the store of Stone & Moore to H. V. Stone. Mr. Stone will conduct the business in the same location.

BAPTISTS HEAR NOTED SPEAKER

DR. M. P. HUNT OF LOUISVILLE
THE SPEAKER.

Final Drive on for the Seventy-Five Millions They are Asking For.

Dr. M. P. Hunt of Louisville, Ky., spoke at the First Baptist church last Sunday to a crowded house. There were several visitors present from other Baptist churches, who are greatly interested in the campaign.

Dr. Hunt was at his best, his arguments were logical and convincing. His congregation was in tears much of the time while he was speaking.

Pastor Trotter is quite sure that his people will oversubscribe their quota. The first church to put on the campaign in the Ohio River Association was Crooked Creek, two miles from Marion. They went over the top last Sunday night. Rev. H. C. Paris preached and at the close of the service in Marion, Rev. J. B. Trotter and Judge Carl Henderson motored out and made speeches on the campaign. The congregation subscribed more than their quota.

Two churches in Louisville on last Sunday oversubscribed their quota by thirty per cent—good example for others.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The grand jury was dismissed on the fourth day of court after finding 14 indictments. Two indictments were returned against Wm. Sisco, one for keeping a disorderly house and the other for adultery. In the former he was tried and fined $200. The latter he was fined $50.

Four cases for divorce have been tried, as follows: Jesse Cosby vs. May Cosby, Ruth Brown vs. Foster Brown, Lizzie F. Daniels vs. H. D. Daniels, Charlie James vs. Annie and W. B. Turley vs. Lola Turley. Judgment was ordered in each case for the plaintiff.

Mrs. Sallie Alvis won her suit against the Woodmen of the World for her husband's insurance.

The petit jury was dismissed Friday.

SUNDAY SCHOOL MEETING.

The Sunday School Convention of Crittenden County met at Piney Fork Church last Saturday with a splendid attendance, with G. M. Travis, President, presiding. The Convention opened by song by Piney Fork choir.

Rev. W. T. Oakley, P. M. Woodall, E. F. Dean and W. J. Hill made addresses on the different topics. W. J. Hill was elected president and Paul Travis, secretary, for 1920. The ladies had prepared a bountiful dinner.

Beard Mines Reopen.

The Beard Mines of the Hurricane section which have been suspended for some months have again resumed operations.

THE COLYUM

Not because of any sympathy for the long suffering readers of the Press that the Colyum has been missing for the past few weeks, I have been so all fired busy on this machine setting the type for a big book we are producing that I have not had the time to inflict you with the shortcomings and longings of anybody. Look out now though.

Headline in an Oklahoma paper "City Council Gets Down to Business." I suggested to Mayor C. W. Haynes last Monday that the very same thing would look mighty fine in the Press.

Every time that this newspaper has to pay an insurance premium I have to think in figures that would remind you of John D.'s income tax.

Which is to remind you that a system of waterworks in Marion would save us all a lot of money but the insurance companies.

But who in blazes has any sympathy for an insurance company?

But there are sure some live insurance agencies in this little old town. They are the best advertisers in Marion with the exception of Jas. H. Orme, the Strand Theatre and Guy Givens.

Speaking of live ones you will have to go a long ways to find 'em that has anything on J. E. Hillyard at Fredonia. And he sure does a big hardware business too—and is going to do a bigger business—he is now one of our regular advertisers.

When a man gets satisfied he would do his neighbors a favor by heading a funeral procession and thus getting out of their way—for his days of usefulness are sure past when he reaches that stage.

If your competitor advertises—you don't have to—you can quit business.

Aunt Polly Jane Hill says that she has been trying to get her name in the paper for years and hasn't succeeded yet. After anybody has lived with Uncle Billy Joel for more than fifty years she is sure entitled to a lot of consideration.

About the only excuse Marion has for not having waterworks is to be different. Mighty few places of one half the size of Marion without 'em.

A lot of people poke fun at Kuttawa—and there are parents living right here in Marion that were born since Kuttawa put in her water system.

And it is a safe bet that four times as many people pay an income tax here than in Kuttawa—not to mention those that don't.

Has any one heard anything of our road bond issue?

There are many things to be thankful for this year.

Back during the late lamented—by a good many—political campaign Congressman Heflin made a speech somewhere in Marion and the Press didn't mention the fact of his being here in its news columns. We can hardly be blamed though because not a word was said to us about the affair until a couple of weeks afterwards. We want to print the news but how on earth it can be done without knowing of it is beyond our ken.

Anyway the city council is having some broken rocks scattered over the streets—it was badly needed.

The Press is still strong for good roads—everywhere—and in Crittenden especially.

Henry & Henry have plastered the upper story of the Concrete building and Drs. Clements, Perry and Moreland and Vernon Oakley are occupying offices there.

JAMES M. LAMB PASSES AWAY

WAS WELL KNOWN AND HIGHLY RESPECTED.

Funeral Services at Sugar Grove—
Wife and Two Sisters
Survive Him.

James M. Lamb, a good citizen and farmer of the Tribune section died November 19th, 1919 at his home after many years of affliction. He was buried at Sugar Grove cemetery the following day. The attendance at the funeral showed the high esteem in which he was held by the people who knew him.

He was born near where he died on March 22, 1848 and was married to Tressie Brantley 51 years ago last June. He was a successful farmer, good neighbor and churchman. Was a member of the Methodist church. He leaves his good wife well cared for.

Mr. Lamb is survived by his wife and two sisters, Mrs. G. C. Baker and Mrs. G. Boyd of Caldwell county. The funeral was conducted by Rev. W. F. Hogard.

THOMAS BROOKS FLETCHER.

Thomas Brooks Fletcher is one of the real stars of the lecture platform. "Thomas Brooks Fletcher," says Judge Ben Lindsey of Denver, "is one of the most powerful orators of our time. He is not the old type of platform entertainer. He entertains but he also has a powerful message, and knows how to deliver it. People want to hear about the things that are being done and need to be done in this country, and that is what Fletcher is telling them about, and he is telling it in a way that commands attention, provokes thought and stimulates men to action. He leaves the impress of his message upon every community." Mr. Fletcher comes with a reputation of being a dramatic orator. It is said that he dramatizes his message by an intensity of energy which holds his audiences from the very start.

Writing of Mr. Fletcher to the committee in charge of the local course the Redpath Bureau, through which Mr. Fletcher was secured, says: "It is difficult to write of Fletcher without using superlatives. He is one of the biggest men Redpath has ever had on the platform. His personality is such that, to put it briefly, he simply must be heard to be appreciated. No one can use the right word to describe Brooks Fletcher and his lecture. When you have told all about him you find that what you have said is inadequate."

Mr. Fletcher is a newspaper editor. He lives at Marion, Ohio, and is editor of the Marion Tribune.

THE CRITTENDEN PRESS

DECLAMATORY CONTEST A BIG SUCCESS.

On Saturday night, Nov. 22, the Sixth Annual Declamatory Contest, in Division No. 2, was held at Hurricane church. The crowd that gathered from all over this quarter of the country to hear these young people put forth their best efforts was certainly proof enough that school enthusiasm can be aroused, even in Crittenden county, if there is anything on to be enthusiastic over.

With Mrs. Herschel Franklin at the piano, the Contestants marched in, led by Miss Bertha Akers, of Forest Grove, who won second honors in the last Contest held (the winner of the first honors being absent). Miss Akers, as President, directed the following program, which was delightfully rendered:

Invocation, Rev. Crowe.
"Aunt Jemima's Courtship"—Lottie Holloman from Brown.
"The Stranded Ship"—Catherine Beard from Hebron.
"The Wooing of Miss Woppett"—Ernestine Traylor from Dean.
"Anybody want this Little Boy"—Jewel Graves from Forest Grove.
"The Christmas Present, and what Came of It"—Marie Moore from Glendale.

"Tim Went Home"—Thos. Lowery from Tolu.

"An American Prayer"—Mary Ava Hamilton from Caney Fork.

"Sergius and the Lions"—Beatrice Alvis from Fords Ferry.
Miss Jewel Hill, E. Jeffrey Travis and Prof. Gumbert, judges, after a few minutes deliberation awarded the gold medal to Miss Jewel Graves from Forest Grove and the silver medal to Miss Marie Moore from Glendale.

This is the second silver medal that has gone to Glendale school, while she has one gold medal to her credit. Forest Grove has, three times in succession proven a winner honors once. Miss Emma Terry has with first honors twice and second taught this school for a number of years.

While there were only two medals to be won, yet each of these young people was a winner—chosen by their respective districts because of their well earned ability to represent the best in that school. They certainly acquitted themselves creditably in every way, and their schools are proud of them.

MARRIED.

Miss Nellie Young of Mexico, Ky., and Mr. H. C. Brooks of Little Rock, Ark., were married November 6 in Little Rock.

The bride was well known in this section, having gone to school here and in Fredonia, and visited in Marion a number of times. She is a highly respected young lady and numbered her friends by her acquaintances.

Mr. Brooks is printing clerk in the state auditor's office in Little Rock and a most excellent gentleman.

Quiet Wedding.

Mrs. J. M. Cox of Marion and W. A. Seymore of Blackford were quietly married on November 13th by the Rev. Eli Eaton at his residence.

MARION BOY WEDS LEXINGTON GIRL.

Miss Hazel Virginia Beckett and Mr. W. H. Rochester were married Saturday, November 15 at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. I. J. Spencer, 134 Walnut street, Lexington, Ky.

Miss Grace Beckett and Mrs. J. C. Talbot, sisters of the bride, and Miss Elizabeth Havelly and Mr. S. L. Bell witnessed the wedding.

The bride is the attractive daughter of Mrs. F. E. Beckett of Lexington, and is quite a favorite in the younger set. She has for a time been bookkeeper for the Wolf & Wile store, Lexington.

The groom, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Rochester, of this city, is a graduate of the University of Kentucky and for two years has been doing government work.

Mr. and Mrs. Rochester are now at home to their friends at the home of his father. They probably will leave here in the spring.

H. S. Wheeler and wife left last Friday to visit their daughter in Ridgeway, Ill. Then to Mount Vernon, Ill., to visit his brother, J. A. Wheeler.

J. C. Elder and son, who has the contract to rebuild the Methodist parsonage are progressing splendidly. Bro. Short will soon have a commodious home.

Mayor Haynes new bungalow is rapidly taking on the appearance of a desirable residence.

Many trucks and wagons are now delivering spar for shipment.

DIES IN ARIZONA.

Telegrams were received here Monday announcing the death of Corone Moore, oldest child of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Moore.

Mrs. Moore took her daughter to Colorado last month in the hope that the change in climate might help her lungs which were affected by "flu" last winter, but finding that climate disagreeable she moved her to Phoenix, Ariz., a short time ago.

Last week Mr. Moore received a telegram saying Corone had developed pneumonia and he left immediately for Phoenix. Every attention known to medical science was given her, but to no avail.

She was sixteen years old last May and was an unusually attractive young lady. Her quiet and pleasing manner won her many friends.

The telegrams received here by friends of the family stated the party would reach here with the remains the latter part of this week. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

Frank Newcom of Owensboro was here a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Bealmear of Herrin, Ill., are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Summers.

Camel CIGARETTES

CAMELS supply cigarette contentment beyond anything you ever experienced! You never tasted such full-bodied mellow-mildness; such refreshing, appetizing flavor and coolness. The more Camels you smoke the greater becomes your delight—Camels are such a cigarette revolution!

Everything about Camels you find so fascinating is due to their quality—to the expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos.

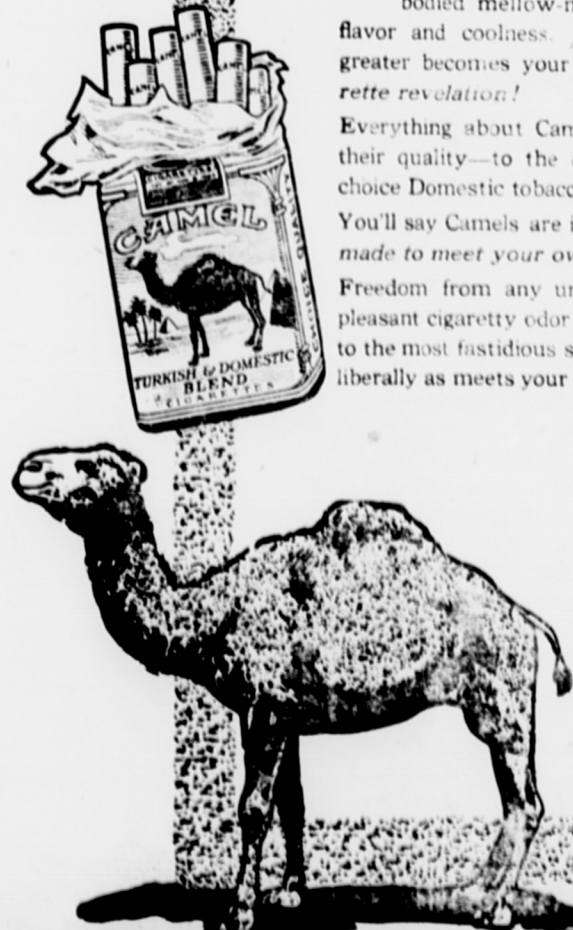

You'll say Camels are in a class by themselves—they seem made to meet your own personal taste in so many ways!

Freedom from any unpleasant cigarette after-taste or unpleasant cigarette odor makes Camels particularly desirable to the most fastidious smokers. And, you smoke Camels as liberally as meets your own wishes, for they never tire your taste! You are always keen for the cigarette satisfaction that makes Camels so attractive. Smokers realize that the value is in the cigarettes and do not expect premiums or coupons!

Compare Camels with any cigarette in the world at any price!

Camels are sold everywhere in scientifically sealed packages of 25 cigarettes or ten packages (250 cigarettes) in a glassine-paper-covered carton. We strongly recommend this carton for the home or office supply or when you travel.

Methodists Save Belgian and Serbian Orphans

Southern Church Buys Homes in Brussels and Belgrade and Supports Serbian Refugees in England.

Nashville, Tenn. — The Centenary Commission of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, will specialize in caring for the children of Belgium, Serbia and other stricken countries of Europe, according to an announcement made by Dr. W. B. Beauchamp, the director-general. Dr. Beauchamp and a Church Commission have just returned from Europe.

For this purpose a large home, formerly a famous boys' school, has been purchased at Uccle, a suburb of Brussels. Several hundred children can be accommodated in this building, and the Methodists will assume entire responsibility for them and their future.

Another home has been bought at Belgrade, Serbia, and here the underfed orphans of the Southern Slavs will be given medical attention and cared for. A staff of women physicians, secured from Scotland, will be in charge of this home.

Still another orphanage has been taken over at Faversham, England. This home already contains more than a hundred Serbian children, orphaned refugees who were taken from their homes during the Austrian invasion.

Plight of Children Deplorable.

"One can scarcely imagine the plight of the Belgian and Serbian children," declared Dr. Beauchamp. "The mines of Northern France have been flooded or filled with concrete by the Germans, and thousands of children will literally freeze to death this winter."

"I have seen them living in the old trenches and dug-outs left by the enemy, with little to eat save what is gathered from the passers-by."

Relief stations will be established as quickly as workers can be obtained and supplies sent. These will be at Brussels, Ypres, St. Quentin, Montdidier, Belgrade and other centers.

The Centenary Commission is seeking for two young physicians, eight nurses, a dozen women social workers, and a number of superintendents and directors to reinforce the relief staff. These will be sent abroad at once.

The Church has a fund of $5,000,000 for this purpose. It is a part of the $25,000,000 fund which was raised in the recent Centenary Drive.

Christians Invade The Holy Land

Southern Methodists Send First Workers to Palestine for Bible and Literature Distribution.

(Special Correspondence)
Nashville, Tenn. — The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, has the distinction of being the first Christian denomination to send workers to Palestine since the free regime inaugurated under the occupancy of General Allenby.

The Centenary European Commission of the Church, headed by Bishop James Atkins and Dr. W. B. Beauchamp, have already dispatched five colporteurs to the Holy Land. These will be followed by five more in the next few weeks.

These workers will establish no stations, but will follow the early Methodist custom of itinerating over the country distributing Bibles, tracts and Christian literature.

This literature will be printed in the native dialects, and will be secured through an arrangement with the Nile Press in Egypt.

Under the rule of the Turk such a movement would have been prohibited, but under Allenby there is perfect freedom of religions. The action of the Southern Methodists is the beginning of a vast scheme of missionary activity which will be carried on in the Holy Land.

A Kentucky Woman's Experience

Paducah, Ky. — "It is a pleasure to me to recommend a medicine that has done me so much good as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. When I have taken it as a tonic during convalescence, I have been such an enthusiastic over 'Favorite Prescription' and the benefit I have received from it that I have not only recommended it to my friends but to my own daughters as well. I have never known of a case where it has failed in giving the results desired." — MRS. CORA SMALLMAN, 908 N. 8th St.

A Nervous Wreck

Louisville, Ky. — "I was certainly a miserable wreck before I took Dr. Pierce's medicines. I was nervous, my back ached all the time and I had intense pains. When I refused to submit to an operation my doctor told me about Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and Lotion. Tablets and Lotion. I had very little faith in any medicine and thought I was going to die. I got these medicines at the drug store. My recovery was so rapid and complete that I surprised the doctor; even he thought it would be just temporary relief, but I am thankful to say that it is apparently a permanent cure. I have had two children since, both of them healthy. I only hope my statement will be the means of many other women being restored to perfect health by using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and his 'Lotion Tablets.'" — MRS. NETTIE BURNS, 208 N. Campbell St.

Women who are worn out, who are nervous or dizzy at times, should take that reliable, temperance, herbal tonic, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, in liquid, or in tablets. Send Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y. 10c. for trial package.

Do You Like Good, Clean, Stirring Adventure?

Wooden Spoil

is a story that is different from any you have ever read. Old Jonas Askew sank a fortune in a tract of Canadian woodland ten miles square. He dies and leaves it to his nephew, Hilary.

Hilary sets out to take possession only to find Lamartine, the Quebec notary, Brousseau and Morris covertly lined up against him.

And then there are the Seigneur Rosny and his daughter. Into this strange new world of rough lumbermen, old French traditions and unscrupulous money powers Hilary steps to battle for his own. It is a tale that calls to your fighting spirit.

REMARK CHANGE IN GHETTO

New Yorkers Note Revived Interest in City of Zion Since Jewish Soldiers' Return.

The street scenes in oriental New York just now are most interesting. Since the local Jewish doughboys have returned from the war a new interest is shown in Jerusalem, the City of Zion, for which they actually fought and helped to free, writes the correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial Tribune. The penny peep-show man has put in a new line of Palestine views and does a flourishing business. Then there is the Hebrew "Morgendavit" or "Star of David," which appears for the first time in the stock of the vender of emblems of all nations. All around these East side streets surges the busy, cheerful, bargaining life of the Jewish people strangely marked and modified by New World customs, but still holding in its heart the ancient law and the prophets. There is the rotary kitchen man who sells potatoes and pancakes, but no "hot dog." Then there is a bewhiskered curbstone apothecary who sells unpunctured medicines and hot water bags; the rugman, who carries an entire shop on his ancient shoulders, and the young Yiddish merchant, who exchanges new pots and pans for old clothes.

THROUGH EYES OF PAINTER

Beauty of Things, as He Has Seen Them, Are Made Visible for All to Behold.

When we see the sunset's vaporous hills towering in purple and gold, or the gray road winding between the flaming furze, or the blue river rolling amid the green fields, where the sheep stand white on the bank and the red cattle graze, we feel we are part of the scene, and are included in the web of wonder. We behold a new world, whose horizon we cannot see, and whose messages we do not clearly understand. Most of us are too busy to wait and worship there, but ever the painter waits and worships. . . . Whatever he painted contained beauty already, but he alone perceived it and caressed it, and out of his love more beauty is unfolded, so that when we look at his achievement our eyes become brighter and brighter and more sensitive, ourselves greater, and we are able to glimpse that over-arching and inexpressible beauty of which we, and the picture, are only the outermost fringe. It is a triumphant trio, which will show us the promising vista. First the visible subject to be painted, then the painter, and lastly the beholder. — W. A. Sinclair, in Painting.

THE COLORS.

An interesting little scene was witnessed at the Auteuil barrier during the recent strike movement in France. Infantrymen had been posted to guard the tram line at a particular point, and on the advance of a crowd of strikers bearing the red flag the men took up their positions barring the road. The situation looked ominous enough and there seemed every likelihood of a collision, when a trooper appeared with the colors, and advancing to the front of the line displayed the blue, white and red of France. The effect of the beloved colors, symbol of so much sacrifice and so much glory, was almost instantaneous. The crowd stood silent a moment, then the revolutionary flag disappeared and soon after the strikers had all dispersed.

ARMED.

"Let's start a summer flirtation with those girls."
"Better not."
"Why?"
"They're knitting."
"Well, a girl can knit and yet not be too busy to flirt."
"You don't understand. I tried that once and the girl jabbed me with the knitting needle."

REWARDED RESEARCH.

"Charley, dear," said young Mrs. Torkins, "I wish they wouldn't investigate the high cost of living any further."
"Why?"
"Every time they hold a new inquiry they seem to discover more of it."

JUST WANTED TO TELL HIM

Tomkins Really Had Information of More or Less Value to Impart to Firm's Head.

Tomkins was of a nervous disposition; he was somewhat slow and hesitating in times of emergency.

When he entered an office one day and found a stranger there, instead of the man he wanted, he somewhat lost himself.

"Oh, I beg your pardon!" he began, "but—are you Mr. Brown, the head of this firm?"

"No; I regret to say I am not." "I'm sorry, very sorry indeed," went on Tomkins; "I had something I rather wanted to tell him. Do you think he'll be in soon?"

"I'm afraid not. Is there anything I can do for you?"

"Er—yes, perhaps—er, perhaps you'll do as well as Mr. Brown. May I ask your name?"

"Certainly." And the stranger gave it.

"Delighted to meet you," said Tomkins.

"And now, what can I do for you, sir?" asked the new-found friend.

"Oh, it's a very small matter—not of the slightest consequence—er, that is, I came to tell the head of the firm that the building is on fire!" —London Tit-Bits.

PAINFUL EXPERIENCE.

"Here comes Glipping."
"I don't want to meet him."
"What's the matter?"
"Glipping persuaded me to try his recipe for putting a 'kick' in a bottle of grape juice. If there were such a thing as justice in this world he'd have to pay my doctor's bill."
